PROBLEMS DISCUSSED

Which May Lead to Purer
Supply of Milk for the Consumer—Convention Brought to a
Close Today.(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Minneapolis, Minn., June 20.—With only three sections in session the 64th annual convention of the American Medical Association practically came to a close today.

At a joint session of the section of diseases of children with the American Association of Milk Commissions, pleas were made for pure milk, especially for children. Dr. T. C. McClellan of Berkeley, California, discussed the common misconception of certified milk. He gave especial credit to the American Association of Medical Milk Commissions for the work being carried on to obtain for the consumer a pure supply.

Dr. Henry L. Cull of Newark, N. J., described the efficiency of the commissions, which he graphically illustrated. He showed the supervision and control employed by the system, in order to insure a product uniformly reliable and safe as produced under fixed standards.

The problem of introducing certified milk into new communities was discussed by Dr. George C. Mosher of Kansas City. The great need, he said, was to educate the public.

Dr. Henry F. Helmholz of Chicago, told of the role that certified milk is playing in the infant welfare campaign and urged the importance of good milk.

Discussions of purely technical questions were made by Dr. W. L. Rodman of Philadelphia. Dr. Bertram M. Bernheim of Baltimore and others.

NEWSPAPER MAN DEAD.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Toledo, O., June 20.—Charles N. O'Brien, formerly managing editor of the Toledo Times and well known Ohio newspaper man, died this morning after a long illness from tuberculosis. Mr. O'Brien was a long time editor of the Lancaster, O., Eagle and later connected with the Cincinnati Times-Star.Hope to Develop Complete
Harmony When Currency
Measure is Introduced(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, June 20.—Congress turned its eyes away from the tariff today and scrutinized the administration's currency bill. While the measure will not be introduced in both houses until next week, the tentative draft brought about informal discussion generally by which President Wilson and the Democratic leaders hope to develop harmony when the bill is launched for debate and amendment.

While it has been known for some time that the framers of the measure, Secretary McAdoo, Senator Owen, Representative Glass and the President contemplated a system of twelve regional reserve banks in districts whose areas were not necessarily equal geographically, but followed the lines of trade and domestic commerce, interest centered today in the powers of supervision to be exercised by the federal reserve board of nine members over the reserve banks.

Though originally it was planned to give the banks representation on the federal reserve board it was argued that the banks would practically have the entire management of the federal reserve banks and that by placing the board entirely in government control a check on the operations of reserve banks might be assured.

The underlying idea of the bill in the minds of the framers for months has been to effect an easy and embarrassing change from the present banking system by using the machinery now in existence.

The bill is expected to be the subject of liberal amendment even by its authors. Provision for the retirement of two percent bonds by notes $700,000,000 of National bank notes are secured so as to provide against depreciation will be one of the foremost problems.

The provision for note issue administration quarters hope will not be changed. It is said to be the result of a careful canvass, not only of prominent banks, but business men who thought it practicable and sound.

Atty. Gen. Hogan Renders
Opinion on State's Interest
In The Ohio Canal System(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, O., June 20.—Attorney General Hogan today rendered an opinion to Senator W. A. Weygandt, of Portage county, chairman of the legislative canal investigating committee setting forth the state's interest in the Ohio canal system. On August 1, the committee which was appointed during the last session of the legislature will begin an investigation of the canal system to determine the feasibility of disposing of the canals and to recommend a plan of disposal.

The attorney general holds that the state has no interest in the Pennsylvania and Ohio canal, running from Akron to the Mahoning river by reason of the fact that the franchise of the company owning the lands, was revoked in 1872 and the company dissolved. The lands, he says, would revert to the state abandoned owners if the state abandoned them. In the case of lands appropriated and used for canal purposes by the state under an act passed by congress in 1825, and lands acquired by the state by purchasing the rights and property from private companies, the attorney general says that upon the abandonment of the canals the state has an absolute right to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the lands.

In answer to a question asked by the committee concerning the interest the United States government has in the Miami and Erie canal and the Wabash extension, the attorney general says:

"It is my opinion that the United States government has a right to free tolls on the canals so long as they are maintained as public highways; that the government has parted with all its rights or interest in the land used for canals; and that the state has an absolute title in fee to the right of way of the Miami and Erie canal, which was secured from the United States government."

The canal extends from Dayton to Toledo, with an extension in Indiana. The act by congress under which the land was granted to the state does not provide for the forfeiture of the land if the state fails to maintain the state highway.

BARN STRUCK
BY LIGHTNING
IS DESTROYED(Special to the Advocate)
Summit Station, June 22.—The barn belonging to Jarred Boyd, two miles west of here on Broadway, was destroyed with its contents last night when it was struck by lightning during a severe thunder storm, and totally burned. Implements, hay and grain to the value of several hundred dollars were lost in the structure. No live stock was reported destroyed.

CITY OFFICES

Will Close Saturday Afternoon, According to Recent Law Passed by the Legislature.

Efforts to close the offices of the various city departments on Thursday afternoon when other offices and business places are closed, have failed and announcement was made today that offices would be closed Saturday afternoon as provided for by law. This legislature passed a measure which makes Saturday afternoon a legal half holiday for all municipal employees. The state department having charge of municipal offices found a way by which this could be changed to Thursday afternoon to conform to local conditions. The city officers, including those of the mayor, auditor, council clerk, salary and service directors will be closed, beginning tomorrow.

DEMENTED MAN
KILLS TEACHER
AND 2 CHILDREN(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Bremen, Germany, June 22.—A school teacher and two children were shot dead, another teacher and three children fatally wounded and three other children less seriously hurt today by a former teacher named Schmidt, who, armed with six loaded revolvers and carrying a number of extra cartridges entered a Catholic school and started a fusillade among the class.

The man, who was apparently demented, was overcome and arrested by people attracted to the scene by the reports of firing. He refused an explanation of his action.

ATTORNEY GENERAL
PUTS THE WEBB LAW
UP TO THE STATES(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington June 20.—The Webb law, forbidding interstate shipments of liquor into "dry" states, is not a criminal statute and violations of it cannot be prosecuted in United States courts.

Attorney-General McReynolds so declared in instructions sent to every United States attorney in the country. "Its purpose," said the Attorney-General, "is to permit state laws to operate in respect of intoxicating liquors moving in interstate commerce."

The law simply deprives shippers of any privileges they might claim on the ground of interstate commerce.

This is the first time the department of justice has construed the Webb law, which was declared unconstitutional by former President Taft and former Attorney-General Wickham. President Taft vetoed the bill on the ground that it violated the interstate commerce clause of the constitution by delegating the regulation of interstate commerce to the states. The bill was passed over his veto.

TRANSPORTATION
OLD VETERANS(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, O., June 20.—The adjutant general's department today mailed rail passes to the 750 veterans of Ohio regiments who will attend the Union and Confederate reunion to be held at Gettysburg, Pa., June 30 to July 1. Four trains will carry the veterans to the scene of the historic battle. A militia officer, assisted by a militia surgeon and three members of the hospital corps, will be in charge of each train.SUNSTROKE

NEWARK PROSTRATIONS

Occur Thursday Evening and Two Men are Given Medical Attention—
Lower Temperature Promised
Tonight.

Fallsburg, O., June 20.—William Booth, 72, died here Thursday as the result of being overcome by heat. Mr. Booth went into a corn field to inspect the crop and when he failed to respond to the dinner bell a son went in search of him and found him lying in the sun about a quarter of a mile from the house. Life was extinct.

Mr. Booth had undoubtedly been overcome by the intense heat that was prevailing and sank exhausted. He was widely known throughout this section and for years conducted a blacksmith shop and later followed farming as an occupation. He is survived by a widow and three children.

The intense heat of Thursday caused the illness of two Newark men, both of whom were overcome late Thursday evening after suffering all day from the heat.

Robert Green, 24, was overcome on the street about 5:30 o'clock and was removed to the home of Frank Steinman in South Fourth street in Bazler &amp; Bradley's ambulance. The same ambulance was called to take John Cosma, 22, from 136 Jackson street to the sanitarium where Dr. P. H. Cosner attended him. He was also prostrated by the heat.

The temperature registered from 94 to 96 degrees during the day in different parts of the city. The storm Thursday night afforded some relief, though Newark seemed to have been favored with but a small portion of the storm belt. It lowered the temperature considerably and gave Newark people a chance to rest comfortably after a day of sweltering.

While the weather bureau at Columbus promises lower temperature tonight and Saturday, Friday proved to be a scorcher. At 10 o'clock Friday morning the Advocate thermometer registered 88 degrees, in the shade, too.

The rain at noon Friday caused a slight drop in the temperature. Thermometers which registered 90 at 11 and 12 o'clock dropped to 84 and 45 degrees at 2 o'clock. Indications were that the storm at noon was not all that Newark people might expect and further relief will probably be afforded in a liberal downpour of rain.

TWO DEATHS FROM HEAT.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, O., June 22.—Two deaths and a half dozen prostrations were reported today as a direct result of the heat. The government registration at 1 o'clock this afternoon showed 94 degrees and climbing. The kiosk in the state capital grounds showed 100 on the street level.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paterson, N. J., June 20.—Thirty-one strikers, silk mill workers, members of the Industrial Workers of the World, who were convicted recently of unlawful assemblage, were sentenced today to serve three months each at hard labor in the county jail. As soon as the sentences were imposed, the court suspended the sentence subject to good behavior.

WHITE FIELD SWIMMIN' HOLE

A popular feature of Newark's new Playground—White Field—is the "swimmin' hole." Work on the ground and in the adjoining creek is not finished but the boys and girls are daily enjoying the amusements of the new playground. The Advocate camera man here produces evidence of the popularity of the new swimming hole.

CAUCUS HELD
BY DEMOCRATS
ON SCHEDULES(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, June 22.—Democratic senators caucused today on the tariff bill as revised by the majority of the finance committee. All schedules and administrative sections were permitted. Only the income tax feature was held back for revision. The committee expects to meet Sunday to complete that work.

Chairman Simmons indicated he expected opposition in the caucus to the sugar and wool program but believed those schedules would not be changed.

The amendment permitting the President to proclaim special rates when foreign nations discriminate against the United States provides that he shall exercise this authority on certain articles as follows:

Fish, fresh, smoked and dried, pickled, or otherwise prepared, one cent per pound.

Wheat, ten cents per bushel.

Wheat, flour, 45 cents per barrel.

Coffee, three cents per pound.

Tea, four cents per pound.

On the following articles a duty not to exceed one and one-fourth times that specified on earth, stone and chinaware, lemons, cheese, wines of all kinds, malt liquors, knitted goods, silk dress and piece goods, leather gloves, laces and embroideries of whatever material composed and articles made wholly or in part of same; toys, jewelry and precious stones, suitable for use in the manufacture of jewelry.

On the following in addition to the duties as provided: Sugars, tank bottoms, syrup of cane juice and concentrated molasses, testing by the polariscope not above seventy-five degrees, fifteen one hundredths cents per pound and every additional degree by the polariscope test, additional one one-hundredths cent per pound; but molasses two cents per gallon.

NAMES MEMBERS OF NEW BOARD(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, O., June 20.—Governor Cox has confirmed the rumor that he would appoint Secretary A. P. Sandies of the State Agricultural Board, and State Dairy and Food Commissioner S. E. Stroh, members of the new agricultural committee. The governor also said that the dean of the College of Agriculture of the Ohio State University would be another member. Homer V. Price is the dean of the college. There will be a fourth member. These appointments will be made if the commission measure is approved by the people next fall.

HEWITT IMPROVING.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Asent, England, June 20.—There was a slight improvement today in the condition of Harold Hewitt, who was injured yesterday when he interfered with the race for the Asot gold cup. He partly recovered consciousness and after a short period slept calmly.SENTIMENT OF
NORTHWESTERN
OHIO DEMOCRACY(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Tiffin, O., June 20.—An exemplification of the sentiment of the Northwestern Ohio Democracy was the action of the Democratic Central Committee of Seneca county in this city yesterday. Everything transacted by the committee was by a unanimous vote in open session. The only matter condemned was efforts to secure endorsements of candidates for federal or state offices by the process of individual signatures of members of a committee privately secured, which had been attempted in a few cases. This was condemned unananimously by a rising vote of the Central Committee in open session. The committee heartily endorsed the National and State administrations and the conduct of Senator Pomerene and the Democratic representatives in Congress.

BIPLANE

Collapsed and Ensign Billingslea Meets
Death and Lieutenant Towers is Seriously Injured.(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Annapolis, Md., June 20.—Ensign William D. Billingslea of Mississippi was instantly killed today and Lieutenant John H. Towers of Georgia was injured when the biplane in which they were maneuvering over the Chesapeake Bay in the vicinity of Kent Island collapsed and threw both men into the water.

A party in a motor boat witnessed the accident and rescued Lieutenant Towers. They did not stop to search for Ensign Billingslea, as his body was not in sight and it was presumed that he had sunk.

Lieutenant Towers was so badly hurt that all speed was made for the Naval hospital at Annapolis.

SENTENCE OF
IS AFFIRMED(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Trenton, N. J., June 22.—The supreme court today affirmed the conviction of Daniel A. Dugan, Jr., of manslaughter in Essex county. While driving his automobile on Christmas day, 1911, Dugan ran down and killed Leo Francis McDermott, a boy who was crossing the street. Dugan's sentence of imprisonment at hard labor for not more than ten nor less than five years stands unless there is an appeal to the court of errors and the latter releases him.

Dugan is a son of Judge Daniel A. Dugan of the Orange district court, a personal friend of President Wilson, who appointed him to a judgeship about a year ago.

Fire Engine Houses of Cincinnati Are Utilized
By City For Ice Depots(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cincinnati, O., June 22.—The city of Cincinnati went into the ice business today when they established depots at a lot the fire engine houses of the city for families who could not obtain ice from their regular dealers, account of the strike of ice wagon drivers, their helpers and engineers of ice plants. The action of the engineers in going on strike resulted in the closing down of a number of plants and further curtailment of the ice supply.

To alleviate the suffering and inconvenience of the people, Mayor Hunt telegraphed to the mayors of Indianapolis, Cleveland and Columbus, to ship as much ice as possible to Cincinnati. The mayor also called the city council in special session today to act upon an appropriation of $5,000 to be used by City Health Officer Landis, who is handling the ice business for the city.

THE OHIO SITUATION

With Reference to Referendum on Bills Passed by Progressives is Reviewed by Gov. Cox
at Wooster.(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Wooster, O., June 20.—Liability companies of the state which are attacking the Green workmen's compulsory compensation law and seeking to have it defeated by referendum vote, were vigorously attacked by Governor James Cox, today, at a farmer's meeting at this Ohio Agricultural experiment station here. The governor reviewed the situation in Ohio, with reference to the suggested referendum on bills passed by this recent progressive legislature, in this wise:

"The Liability Companies sought to have the workmen's compensation law written in their behalf. Failing in this they have invoked the referendum. A year ago they not only opposed the initiative and referendum but also fought against the constitutional amendment making workmen's compensation compulsory. As enemies of the principle of referendum they have sought in every way to bring discredit upon the plan by paying college students from five to ten cents for every name signed to a petition."

"In Cincinnati the pet of securing signatures to the petition was turned over to the old Cox organization. In one night they secured 800 signatures in the resort district, the representations being that the petitions were in behalf of a local candidate for mayor."

"If the legislature had passed a bill agreeable to the liability companies there would have been no referendum begun in this state. They have no interest, whatsoever, in any movement to submit for approval or rejection, the other projects, namely, the agricultural commission bill and the Warrens taxation measure. But it is their theory that if there is a referendum on the compensation act alone their self-interest will be so manifest as to contribute even more to the fatality of their plans."

"They have themselves written a bill which they have initiated—a measure proposed by them for the whole industrial problem of the state. In short they have taken upon themselves the task of legislating for the people of Ohio."

Governor Cox then reviewed the history of industrial conditions showing the amount of money expended in the courts on damage suits resulting from injuries sustained by employees to set forth the merits of the Green act requiring compulsory compensation. He gave figures to show that the law which the liability companies seek to defeat by a referendum is advantageous to the employee.

"Privilege is making its last stand in Ohio," said Governor Cox, "and it is just as important now to turn the last fight into a victory as it was to achieve a victory in the beginning. There is no politics in this contest. The Progressives of Ohio must align themselves against privilege. The sheep must be separated from the goats. This year when no political campaign is on, and no offices are contested for, we must know this year who the progressives are, not next year."

The Public Will Please Take Notice of the Time for Opening and Closing of Stores

On and after Saturday, June 21, all Dry Goods, Millinery and Ladies' Furnishing Stores will open mornings at 7:30 o'clock, and close every Saturday night promptly at 8:30 o'clock. On all other days these stores will close at 5:30 p. m., as usual

SEIZED THE TWO
DRY DETECTIVES(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Ashtabula, June 20.—Two dry detectives, Frank A. Simons and William J. Billingsmeyer of Cleveland, were arrested by the Ashtabula police on a warrant sworn out by Mrs. William J. Bush, wife of one of the men against whom the dry detectives have been seeking evidence for alleged sales of liquor in dry territory. Mrs. Bush charges she and her husband had obtained liquor from the two detectives.

HAVE CHANGED LOCATION FOR THE EXPRESS WAGONS

Through the efforts of Humane Officer Harris, arrangements have been made to provide new quarters for the express wagons which for years have stood in Third street next to the court house park. The new location for the expressmen by a city south side of the park.

This new stand gives the horses and drivers plenty of shade during the hot summer months and cuts off much of the raw wind which has proved uncomfortable through the winter.

Humane Officer Harris consulted with the city officials and secured the consent of Mayor Swartz and Solicitor Jones to allow the change to be made. It is proposed to fix a location for the expressmen by a city ordinance to be introduced in the near future. The location to be provided for in this measure has been selected.

Newark people requiring the service of expressmen will remember the new location and all expressmen will be expected to comply with the new arrangement.

TONIGHT AT THE FIFTH STREET BAPTIST CHURCH

There will be a supper at the Fifth Street Baptist church tonight at 6:30. Each church in the city will have representative laymen present to hear an address by Mr. E. H. Shanks of Pittsburgh, Pa., the general secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement of this district. Aside from the special representatives from the churches appointed by the pastors, any layman wishing to attend has that privilege. The price of the supper is 25 cents. Supper will be furnished by the ladies of the Baptist church. The meeting will close in time to allow all those who wish to attend the Orchestra Recital at the First M. E. church at 8:30 to attend. A large company of men is desired at this luncheon and conference.

Harvard Won the Preliminary Races of Annual Regatta

Regatta Course, New London, Conn., June 20.—Rowing true to form and the confidence placed in them by students and alumni, Harvard crews won both preliminary races in the annual regatta with Yale here this morning. The disagreeable weather conditions appeared to have no effect upon the Crimson oarsmen, for in both varsity four-oared and freshmen eight races they led their Eli rivals from start to finish.

It rained steadily during the entire forenoon, but the Thames was almost without a ripple.

The four-oared race was little more than a procession. Harvard took the lead, when the referee's pistol went the crews away and steadily increased it. At the finish of the two miles, five lengths separated victor and vanquished. Official time indicates the difference in speed, for Harvard crossed the line in 11 minutes, 52 seconds, while Yale was over in 12 minutes 11 seconds.

The struggle for honors between the first year crews was, however, a real race. Although the Crimson won, the showing of the Eli youngsters was excellent. Both eight crews caught the water at the bridge at 10:32 and raced up river toward the two mile mark at 38 strokes to the minute. In the opening dash Harvard showed a little more finish and drive in its stroke and gradually closing into the lead to the first half mile mark, the Cambridge crew led by half a length, rowing 38 strokes to the minute against Yale's 32.

The closeness of the race was shown by the fact that but four seconds separated winner and loser. Harvard finished the two miles in 10:41 as against Yale's time of 10:45.

Some Reasons Why Not

THERE are many reasons why the small merchant should not sit back and let the mail order houses take the cream of his out of town trade. One of them is the parcel post service. Under the zone system of postal rates every merchant within the limits of his own territory may now develop a mail order business on his own account. He can ship goods much cheaper and much more expeditiously than any concern outside his district.

Every merchant should at once begin an educational campaign of advertising, teaching the people within reach of his influence that it is less expensive, quicker and infinitely more satisfactory to make their purchases near home than to send elsewhere.

PLANT THE SEED AND SEE IT SPROUT.

VERY OLD PAPERS FOUND.

Documents Signed by Presidents Jackson, Arthur and Grant.

Greeley, Colo., Valuable papers which have lain in a closet in the courthouse for years apparently forgotten were unearthed the other day by County Clerk J. E. Snook, the very existence of which had been entirely unknown in the past decade. Included in the lot were a number of bond patents for which the owners have been in vited to call.

One was issued to Jeremiah Williams, a corporal in Captain Clout's company in the war of 1812, in exchange for scrip which he got for services. The patent was signed by Andrew Jackson on Oct. 1, 1867.

Another was granted to Elizabeth Cochran on Oct. 30, 1874. This patent was issued while U. S. Grant was president of the United States.

Land patents were also issued to James Russell and to Samuel Roberts in 1879.

President Chester A. Arthur signed the patent granted to Michael Carey, and there is also one for John Benson signed by the same hand.

SNAKES OVERRUN HOME.

Make Incursions From Family Well Near the Residence.

Glendale, Ia.—The premises of William Horton, near this place, are infested with snakes to such an extent that he and his family are in danger of being driven from their home. The snakes are a spotted variety of blue racer from two to four feet long.

Last summer Mr. Horton had a similar siege and killed nearly a hundred of the reptiles.

The chief source of the snakes seems to be the family well, which stands near the back door and from which the family has for many years drawn its water for drinking purposes. The serpents even have entered the house, one big one having been killed there this summer.

So offensive became the old family well on account of the swarming reptiles that it became necessary to build a cistern for drinking water.

Mr. Horton's little children are kept out of the yard for fear they will be bitten. The slaughter of the snakes goes on daily, but the situation appears to be hopeless.

MUTE MONTHS, GIRL RESUMES TALKING

Peculiar Case Brought on by Overstudy at School.

St. Louis.—Irene Burnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Burnes of Hilliard, who for the last seven and a half months has been confined at the Sacred Heart hospital on account of a most serious and peculiar case of hysteria, which baffled local physicians for several months on account of her refusal to talk, is improving.

In about a month she will be able to leave the hospital, at which time she will be taken for a visit to Lewiston, Ill.

Miss Burnes was at her home for a few hours recently, the first time since Oct. 2, when she was taken to the hospital. Although she has not entirely recovered her power of speech, she will at times, especially in the mornings when rested, talk for a little while. She understands all said to her, but under no condition can she talk unless she be thoroughly rested.

Miss Bailey, her nurse, takes her for a walk each day. Miss Burnes since March has been under the care of Dr. W. T. Phy.

The illness was brought on last summer as the result of overstudy at a summer school and following the excitement of the final examinations.

BREAKS HIS WOODEN LEG.

Jailer Nails It Together So Prisoner Can Go to Workhouse.

Pittsburgh.—James Burns, sixty years old, giving his home as Homestead, charged with vagrancy, was sentenced to the workhouse for thirty days by Magistrate Justus Schroedel in the east end police station.

Burns has a wooden leg, and while he was in a cell another prisoner fell on the leg and broke it. Burns told one of the turnkeys that his leg was broken, and the officer thought it was a human leg.

When he discovered his mistake he took the wooden leg and nailed it together so that Burns was able to get to the workhouse.

Free Drinks For Chickens.

Kansas City.—A dozen chickens in a coop at the city market were deluged by a broken jug of whisky. As the jug's contents trickled toward the gutter the chickens stuck their heads through the slats of the coop and sipped the liquor. Soon afterward the roosters began to crow noisily, the pullets flapped their wings, and it was evident all the fowls were drunk.

Expected $50,000, Got Nothing.

Aurora, Ill.—Heirs of Charles Tagge, who died nine years ago, found the key to a safety deposit box which had not been opened for twenty-nine years. In the recess they discovered a will, which deprived them of the $50,000 estate which they had expected to inherit. Tagge left his property to his widow, who died in March, and his relatives will get nothing.

The worst thing about the dead beat is that he is so very much alive.

CLIMAX REACHED BY SUFFRAGETTES

Acts of English Militants Have Steadily Grown Graver.

BEGUN EIGHT YEARS AGO.

At First the Campaign Was Regarded as a Mere Joke, but When It Came to Destroying Life and Property It Was Another Matter For Officials to Cope With—Many Serious Outrages.

London.—A retrospective review of the performances of the militant suffragettes of England—the "wild women," the "bashi bazoukesses," the "bravler squads," as they have been variously called—is startling for the pyramid of offenses, crazy and grave, which they have perpetrated with the idea of securing the vote—an orgy of arson, assault, riot, mischief, self imprisonment, immolation and suffering.

The public that first looked upon the "wild women" with grinning tolerance have now been aroused against the women as the women have been against the government and its officials. The "bobbies," who used merely to good naturedly "bustle" women about when they came yelling and shrieking in their sieges of parliament, do not hesitate now to ride them down and trample them, to wrench their arms and wrists and even to club them.

Despite all, however, they continue to march and burn and rant and riot with delicious wavings of their banners that announce, "No Votes, No Peace."

There is a summary of the acts of violence by the suffragettes up to the seizure by the Davidson woman of King George's entry while running in the Derby.

Rioting.—Eight years' siege of the house of parliament, fighting the police with tooth and nail, with brickbats and bursting bombs of stinging acids; whips and red pepper; pelting them with tiles ripped off the roofs with fire axes; charges of battalions of umbrella lances; jujitsu and skyrockets and Roman candles.

Assault.—Three times gave Premier Asquith violent shakings, twice horse whipped Winston Churchill; beat Sir Augustin Birrell, first secretary for Ireland, into unconsciousness in St. James' park; struck Lloyd-George in the face with a brass bound box; struck John Redmond with a brick; tortured a man caught in one of their meetings, pinching him and jabbing him with batons and stamping on him; threw him out of a window; screamed threats of violence in Queen Mary's car; hurled "Votes For Women" pamphlets at King George's head; wounded 500 policemen and killed one.

Malignant Mischief.—Smashed more than 10,000 windows in London buildings, stores, clubs, newspaper offices, government buildings; destroyed hundreds of thousands of letters by deluging mail boxes with burning acids; point and refuse; threw acids into poll boxes on election day; ruined $5,000 worth of orchids in Kew gardens; defaced valuable paintings in the Royal academy and Glasgow galleries.

Iconoclasm.—Tried to burn British museum; burned Royal theater and six fine residences; wrecked Lloyd-George's suburban home; burned building at Eton school; tried to burn track grand stands; tried to blow up three railroad stations; fired famous Notting ham forest.

The dead-sure thing is often more dead than sure.

RAISE QUESTION OF EXTENSION OF GREENLUND BILL

Saloonists by Paying Year's Dow Tax Would Receive License Until Fourth Monday in May.

Friday marked the last day for payment of both liquor and cigarette taxes, and with the remittance of the Dow tax by something like 80 Newark saloonists comes a plan by which it is believed likely that the operation of the Greenlund liquor bill may be postponed for another year. The Greenlund bill prohibits more than one saloon to every 500 population, provides a commission to issue licenses and is supposed to go into operation January 1.

Saloonists have brought up the question as to whether a permit to operate issued by the county treasurer on payment of the Dow tax could be thrown out by the new law. The Dow tax law prohibits an extension of liquor tax paying (time and penalties will be collected if the tax is not paid Friday, according to rules of the treasurer's office.

Some saloonists in the state say if they go to the treasurer and offer him $1000 for the Dow tax for a year instead of $500 for a half year as is customary the Greenlund bill cannot touch them January 1, and they will not have to make a request for a license before the special county license commission.

Deputy Treasurer Weekley said Friday up to noon payments of the Dow tax were coming in rapidly, but he was not able to say whether payment of that assessment for the full year would knock out or postpone operation of the Greenlund bill. If it did, the treasurer's office would have to refund the half year paid.

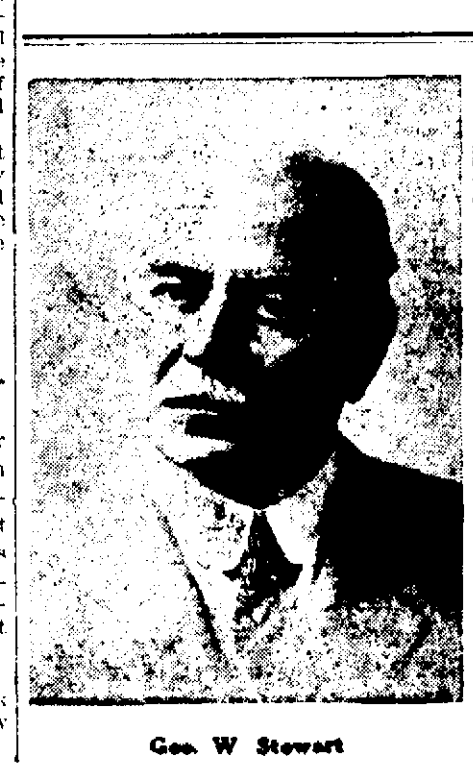

The saloonists say a law cannot operate against a license issued by the county and already in effect and that $1000 paid now would give them a license to last until the fourth Monday in next May.

CHIEF CARTER OF COLUMBUS IS TO SPEAK SUNDAY

Chief of Police Charles E. Carter of Columbus, will address the men of the city at the Second Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Every man in the city is invited to be present. Special effort is being made to get a large attendance for this meeting. Do not forget the hour and the day.

Great Musical Program For Panama-Pacific Exposition

World's Singers Will Gather in 1915

In keeping with the sentiment of the celebration, the musical features at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition which is to be held in San Francisco in 1915 will be in a very sense pre-eminently international. More progress has already been made in the preparation for a gigantic musical festival than has been the case in any previous exposition and arrangements are now being made for the bringing together of a huge chorus of 20,000 voices picked from the best choirs in all countries of the world.

Mr. George W. Stewart, of the famous Boston Band and celebrated for his association with the musical festival at Chicago and St. Louis expositions, has been appointed Director of Music for 1915.

AN APOLOGY AND SOME REASONS!

Ladies!

We certainly owe you an apology today! You simply came in such crowds that we were utterly unable to wait on you--much less give you that Personal attention and service which you had reason to expect of this store and which is one of the great factors in our success! Literally hundreds of our friends and customers both new and old were not able to force their way into the store! This is absolutely no exaggeration! Under such conditions we were unable to serve you properly--hence this apology! The thing that worries us however is that Saturday will duplicate the same condition again--you will be here and your friends and neighbors, and we shall have the same crowd! But here are the wonderful bargains every lady is talking about and just the hot weather things that you must have! Dainty cool and Lingerie Lawn and Linen dresses, French Voile in exquisite combinations, beautifully tailored Suits in Wool and in Linen Suits! Smart Messaline Dresses and charming Party and evening Gowns! And all so wonderfully underpriced that you are amazed! So we invite you to come anyway--we'll do the best we can to wait on you! Extra salespeople and more perfect arrangement will help so we hope to give each and everyone the best possible service tomorrow!

YOUNG BOY DROWNS IN DIVING FROM A BARGE DERRICK

Zanesville, June 20.—James Harris, aged 18, a workman on the Sixth street bridge, met his death in the Muskingum river here near the bridge at 6:20 o'clock Wednesday evening when he attempted to dive from a construction barge. In diving, Harris struck the water in such a way that internal injuries in the chest and abdomen resulted, leaving him unable to swim.

Charles Lift, another bridge workman, went to his rescue and was able to grasp him and hold him up for some time. Lift finally became exhausted and in attempting to reach a rope thrown by a bystander named McIntire, was forced to release his hold on the injured man. The body remained in the water for over 20 minutes and was recovered by Officer Pierson and Ernest Crawford. After the body was recovered, efforts were made for nearly two hours to resuscitate. At no time did any signs of life appear.

An eye witness to the tragedy states that the boy made no attempts to swim after striking the water. In spite of reports to the contrary, Harris was an accomplished swimmer. Several persons who were helping in the attempts at resuscitation declare that there was no water in the man's lungs and that his death was due to a burst blood vessel. Harris did not die in the ordinary manner but struck the water flat.

Harris has been in the city only about a month. He was an orphan and formerly lived with Jerry Rhodes in New Concord. The body was removed to the People's Undertaking company rooms.

Thursday evening Police Chief Sheridan received a message from the Zanesville department asking him to try and locate Charles Harris, a brother of the drowned boy, who came here from Zanesville about a week ago to accept a position in one of the factories. Chief Sheridan has telephoned the information to nearly all the offices of the local factories requesting them to notify factory foremen in an effort to find Mr. Harris. If still in the city he will undoubtedly be located something today.

The accomplished flatterer first practices on himself.

LEGAL NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that a petition by owners of lots in the immediate vicinity of Neal Place, a street in the City of Newark, Ohio, has been presented to the Council of the City of Newark, Ohio, praying for the vacation of a strip fifteen feet wide off the south side of said street from Linden Avenue to Neal Avenue and that said petition is now pending before Council and final action thereon according to law will be taken on and after the 15th day of July, 1913.

REDEDICATION

Of the "Stone Pile" Church Near Clay Lick to be held Sunday, June 22.

Everything is in readiness for the rededication of the "Stone Pile" church. The restoration of this historic building is a matter of interest all over the county. To the people who live in the vicinity of the church it is a source of joy and pride. Services will be held Sunday, June 22, at 10 a. m., 2:30 and 7 p. m., standard time. The dedicatory service will be held in the afternoon. The morning meeting will be intended especially for those who live in that community. Rev. L. J. Cahill of Cleveland, will be the chief speaker of the day. He will be assisted by Mr. Ward, of the Central Church of Christ of Newark. Transportation from Clay Lick interurban station to the church will be provided free to the Newark people who have already indicated to Mr. Ward that they intend to go, provided they take the 12:05 car. The people who live near the church will attempt to furnish dinner to all who go on the car. In order to make sure that there will be sufficient provision for all, those who go in buggies or automobiles had better take baskets, if convenient. It is quite certain that the entire indebtedness, including material, labor and furnishings, will not exceed $100. It is hoped to raise all of this in cash. If this cannot be done, sixty day pledges will be taken. No fees are entertained but that the good people who attend on Sunday next will see to it that all of the financial obligations are met. A most cordial invitation is extended to all.

HARVARD WON THE VARSITY 2 MILE RACE

(Associated Press Telegrams)
New London, Conn., June 20.—Harvard won an easy victory over Yale today in the Varsity four oared two-mile race the crimson bladed crew crossing the finish line five lengths ahead of the Yale oarsmen. The contest was rowed in a rain and the rippled surface of the Thames rushed slowly. The official time of the winner was 11 minutes and 52 seconds. The Yale crew was in bad shape at the end of the contest, Number 2 almost collapsing.

NEWARK CONCERT ORCHESTRA PLEASES LARGE AUDIENCE

The Newark Concert Orchestra appeared Thursday night before a large audience at the town hall at Alexandria and rendered a program which pleased greatly. Under the direction of K. I. Dickerson a number of splendid orchestra selections were rendered. Orley H. See, violin soloist of Columbus, was particularly pleasing in his numbers. Paul Hawkins, saxophone soloist and Will H. Reynolds, basso, both Newark young men, delighted the audience with their solo numbers.

The orchestra members made the trip from Granville to Alexandria and returned in the Burklim Blair truck, returning in time to take the last car from Granville to Newark.

The same orchestra will render a similar program tonight at the First M. E. church, featuring Mr. See in violin solos.

Uncle Walt's Philosophy

Looking Forward

Bad luck may come this year or next, and put me out of kilter, but I am not distressed or vexed, my eyes no teardrops filter. I'd rather think that coming days will be brighter and better, and so I sing my song of praise, and whoop and hurray my sweater. I may fall down and break a leg, as you say, with emotion, and have to buy about a keg of powder, pill and potion; but while my legs are on my frame, no trouble will I borrow; I'll prance around and play the game and have no truck with sorrow. My aunt may come and bring her kid to visit for a while; on joy, you say, 'twill put the lid, but, for the love of Michael, why should I fret till she shall start to share my humble pottage? No aunt can break a brave man's heart, until she's in his cottage. Ten million clumps, all over the earth, are always muffled-drumming, and missing all there is of mirth, through fear of Oh, friends, today let us be glad and keep our tops a-spinning, and tomorrow we are sad, the next day we'll be grinning! Let's always keep our smiles on straight, to sorrow make resistance; no jolly's greater than to wait for troubles in the distance.

What's a-coming
a-spinning, and tomorrow we are sad, the next day we'll be grinning!

What's a-coming

Wilson Administration Gives Single Taxer Important Position

Washington June 20.—Little attention has been given the selection of Louis F. Post, the noted single taxer, for the position of assistant secretary of the new department of labor by Secretary Wilson. But Mr. Post is perhaps the best known single taxer in the United States. For many years he has been preaching that doctrine, and is recognized as an authority in political economy.

Although he spent the early years of his activities in New York, his home is in Chicago. He was prominent in the Henry George campaign for mayor of New York, more than twenty years ago, and was a devoted personal friend of the author of the single tax plan. He is the author of "The Single Tax," "Success in Life," "The Ethics of Democracy," "The Prophet of San Francisco," and numerous other works. His last works are "The Ethical Principles of Marriage and Divorce," and "Social Service."

GOOD ROADS CONFERENCE AT ZANESVILLE, O.

As a result of a conference held Thursday in Zanesville, the county engineer, with Licking county commissioners, and the county engineer, State Highway Commissioner Mark-er and Ex-Senator Walter A. Alsford of Johnstown, Muskingum county, formally approved the plan to accept federal aid from the good roads appropriation and voted, by its board of commissioners, to put up $100,000 and accept $20,000 of the federal fund. Licking county commissioners recently voted $140,000 to get $70,000 from the government on the two-to-one proposition submitted by federal authorities.

This step insures heavy investment in improvement of the old National highway between Zanesville and Columbus, practically nine miles of which runs through the southern part of Licking county.

The last session of congress set aside $500,000 for road improvements, available to the various states. Of this, $10,000 was to go to any one state putting up $20,000. The other states looked askance at the proposition, so Ohio made its bid and will get the bulk of the appropriation on the two-to-one basis.

Improvements on the National road will cost from $10,000 to $15,000 per mile and the distance is 49 45-100 miles.

Many are enlisting in the ranks of those who are taking an interest in good roads and a national road through Newark.

Committees are at work throughout the city soliciting members for the Ohio Good Roads Federation and already over 100 have been enlisted. The state representatives of the federation expect to conclude their work in Newark Friday and go from here to other towns.

All interested in this project of good roads should enlist in the Ohio Good Roads Federation immediately so as to be in at the start.

$1,000,000 For a Great Boy City

Boys of the World Will Take Part in Big Event at the Panama Exposition

A national boy city, with a population of 15,000 boys, will be a outstanding feature of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition which is to be held at San Francisco in 1915 in celebration of the completion of the Panama Canal. More than $1,000,000 is to be spent on this city, which is being backed by two of the greatest commercial organizations which spend vast sums on developing efficiency among the boys of America.

During the period of the exposition, which lasts from February to December, 1915, the boys will live in a model settlement, the watchword of which will be "Achievement." Contests are being conducted in 436 congressional districts of America, by which a boy may win the coveted honor of representing his home section in the national boy city. The boys are to be chosen by competitive examination in which 25 per cent. will be allowed for educational qualifications, 25 per cent. for physical development, 25 per cent. for moral character and 25 per cent. for musical accomplishments. All expenses to and from San Francisco will be paid and there will be no expenses attached to their remaining in the settlement during the period of the exposition.

A staff of physicians has already been engaged to look after the health of the boys, and every precaution against disease and hurt will be made by the exposition authorities. A squad of boys is now touring the world under charge of Major Sidney S. Peizotte, head of the Columbia Park Boys Club of San Francisco. These boys will visit the capitals of the world and return to California at the end of the year. The expedition will select boys from other countries to join the settlement of 1915, which will be in charge of Judge Willis Brown, formerly judge of the Juvenile Court at Salt Lake City, Utah, and famed throughout the world as a boys' friend.

It is expected that more than 40,000 boys will visit the city in 1915.

Major Sidney S. Peizotte

Much of the expense will be defrayed by entertainments given by the boys in the cities they visit on their way to San Francisco.

POMERENE PATRONAGE DISPENSER

Job Hunters Learn That Ohio Senator is Supreme and Holds Whip Hand—Pres. Wilson to Stand by Him.

Columbus, O., June 20.—Political leaders who have carried their cases to the seat of government at Washington bring back word that President Wilson intends to follow the suggestions of the democratic United States senator from Ohio in making federal appointments. From half a dozen sources this word has been sent to men in Buckeye politics and they have accepted it as an official statement. Senator Atlee Pomerene is to be the high chief in Ohio politics.

Plainly, gently, positively, it has been eased over to the Ohio men who play politics, that it is not worth while to cross swords with the senator where there are a number of men in a contest. It is the settled policy of the president, they have been told to stand by the senator. He believes a man in Pomerene's position ought to be final authority in the distribution of political places in his state.

And that little piece of information, brought back to Ohio and applied, has caused a shift in plans that were made, with great care. Hereafter all arrangements will point to the senator, although recently there have been a few that were made to go past or over the senator. Efforts of that nature have not been successful and it is not expected others of a similar character will prove so.

The information was given to Ohio it was plainly intimated, that the conflicting efforts of certain forces in the state should not be carried to a point where personal bitterness is being created. The presumption brought back from Washington was that President Wilson looked with much disfavor on any fighting scramble for place and that continued efforts of such a nature would react.

INCREASE IN THE EXPORTS OF U. S.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, June 20.—Manufacturers exported from the United States have increased during the past thirty years more than ten times as rapidly as the agricultural exports, as shown by figures collected by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce.

The value of farm product exports has not decreased in value, but the manufactures have grown so much more rapidly that the increase is a ten to one.

From the year 1880 to 1913 agricultural products sent abroad grew in value from $694,000,000 to $1,200,000,000 an increase of 70 percent.

Manufactured products exported in 1880 were valued at $122,000,000 in 1913 at $1,200,000,000, an increase of more than 800 percent.

ITCHING HUMORS.

There is Now a Way to Escape These Skin Torments.

Try This Remedy at Our Risk.
People sometimes say, "Well that new remedy of yours, Saxo Salve, may cure recent cases of eczema, but I doubt if it will help me for I have had eczema a long time."

The fact is, Saxo Salve was devised as much for chronic skin troubles as for acute cases, and it is equally effective, though usually the chronic cases are more stubborn.

Numbers of cases right around here could be cited, showing that Saxo Salve is exactly the remarkable soothing and curative remedy for skin diseases that we claim.

The itching is stopped in a few moments after the first application, and improvement is seen in a few days.

All humors and disorders of the skin, whether scaly, crusty or in the very first stages, usually yield to Saxo Salve promptly. If it does not, in your case your money will be returned. Frank D. Hall, druggist, Newark, Ohio.

CHARGES SOLDIERS DO NOT AFFORD ANY PROTECTION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, June 20.—Charges that American soldiers on the Mexican border are as much outlaws as the roving bands across the line will be laid before Secretary of War Garrison today by J. J. Kilpatrick, a merchant at Candelaria, Texas.

Mr. Kilpatrick's son is postmaster at that place and the postoffice is situated in the elder Kilpatrick's store.

Armed with a letter of identification from Oscar Underwood, majority leader of the House of Representatives, Mr. Kilpatrick is prepared to assert to the secretary that the American soldiers are mutinous and riotous among themselves and that they are failing to afford protection to Americans.

Mr. Kilpatrick on his arrival yesterday sought out Mr. Underwood, whom he had known well years before in Alabama. Candelaria is a border town of about 500 inhabitants, virtually all of whom are Mexicans. Mr. Kilpatrick, and members of his family in fact, are said to be the only Americans now in the place.

TO PARTICIPATE IN CELEBRATION OF PERRY'S VICTORY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, June 20.—The celebration of Perry's victory on Lake Erie beginning July 4th, being regarded as essentially a naval event, the navy is making special preparations to participate. Ensign George M. Lowery today was detached from the battleship Arkansas and assigned to the special duty of collecting and arranging for public exhibition such relics and mementos of the event as are in the possession of the department.

The ceremonies will begin at Put-in-Bay, July 4, with the laying of the cornerstone of a monument to the naval hero, to be followed by a week's celebration at Erie, during which Secretary Daniels will deliver an address.

The historic brig, Niagara, Colonel Perry's flagship, will be the central feature of the celebration and on it will be placed the relics.

SPEAKING TOUR OF FAIRBANKS IN NORTHWEST

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Indianapolis, Ind., June 20.—Former Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks left here today to attend the second World's Christian Citizenship conference at Portland, Ore., commencing June 29, and will fill a number of speaking engagements while in the Northwest. Tomorrow he will attend a meeting of the trustees of the McKinley National Memorial Association at Canton.

From Canton Mr. Fairbanks goes to Omaha, Neb., where he will be the guest of the Republicans of Nebraska Monday evening, June 23, at a banquet. On June 24 he will be the luncheon guest at the University Club of Omaha, and on the same evening he will speak on "Missions" before the Women's Missionary Federation.

On June 27 Mr. Fairbanks will make two addresses at Boise City, Idaho, and on Sunday, June 29, he will speak twice at Portland and once on the following day.

GIANTS SECURE PIEZ.

First Things

The first vessel fitted with steam engines to cross the Atlantic was the Savannah, which reached Liverpool ninety-four years ago today. The Savannah, a ship of 350 tons, had sailed from the Georgia city for which it was named on May 24, the passage requiring nearly twenty-seven days. Most of the voyage was made under sail. The coal supply having been exhausted after ten days at sea. Six years later the steamship Enterprise went from Falmouth, England, to the East Indies, the first voyage of the kind ever made. Thos. Paine was the first to propose steam navigation in America, in 1778, according to Haydn. Regular navigation of the ocean between Europe and America was commenced in June, 1838, when the steamship Great Western crossed the Atlantic in eighteen days. In the meantime, however, there had been several occasional passages, the steamboat Royal William crossing the ocean from Quebec in 1831. The Cunard line's first steamer, the Britannia, a side-wheeler, began service to Halifax and Boston in 1840.

How much service can you get from your typewriter?

It's what a machine does, not what it costs, that is most important. All typewriters do not have the same efficiency and the same operator does not get the same result on every writing machine.

The L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter

will produce ten to twenty per cent. more work than any other typewriter ever made.

How is this possible?

Here are a few reasons:

1. It is ball bearing throughout—others are not.
2. All operations are controlled from the keyboard.
3. It is the lightest touch machine made.
4. It does not "smut" the carbon.
5. The ribbon reverses automatically.
6. The type is so protected that it is not battered by collision.

7. One motion of the hand returns the carriage and operates the line space.
8. It has an inbuilt biller and tabulator.
9. No trouble to write on paper as small as a postage stamp.
10. It is built for service.

OARSMEN READY FOR THE STRUGGLE ON THE HUDSON

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 20.—The one hundred and forty-one oarsmen at Cornell, Wisconsin, Columbia, Pennsylvania, Syracuse and Washington in the training camps along the Poughkeepsie course have practically finished their week's training and are ready for battle on the historic Hudson tomorrow afternoon. There is confidence in every camp; every coach is looking for his crews to give all there is in them to make victory possible. The six coaches refrain from making any predictions but all look forward to the closest struggle in aquatic events seen on the Poughkeepsie course. A few of the practically all the coaches are summed up in the words of Coach Ward of Penna., who said today:

"The men have received all the instructions and training necessary to make them row a good race. The hard work is over and from this morning till the time of the event they will practically rest and be prepared for what every oarsman knows is a hard struggle. They have been told all the coaches know and it is now up to them."

MUNICIPAL SALOON FOR DAKOTA TOWN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Sisseton, S. D., June 20.—Commencing July 1, Sisseton will have the nearest approach to a municipal saloon of any town in South Dakota. The licenses for two saloons to which the town is entitled, was granted to W. E. Vollenbeck by popular vote. Vollenbeck will conduct the business on unique lines. He will work on a salary of $1800 a year and the profits of the business will be divided as follows:

Fifty per cent to good roads fund, and the remaining fifty per cent to the city treasury. The daily receipts of the saloon will be turned over to two leading citizens under whose control business will be conducted. The name of the city will not appear in any of the transactions of the saloon.

BUSY YEAR FOR SUPREME COURT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, June 20.—When the Supreme court adjourned for the summer it had 89 fewer cases before it than there were a year ago when the court took its official vacation.

Data just compiled shows that 21 more cases were brought to the court within the judicial year just closed than during the preceding one and that the court disposed of 77 more cases this year than during the one preceding. There are 604 cases on the court's docket.

PROLONGING LIFE IN DIABETES

On Monday, May 6th, 1912, San Francisco dailies published an offer that is unique, as follows:
"To show that Codein containing orium which locks up secretions, commonly used in Diabetes is wrong, and that Fulton's Diabetic Compound, which contains no opium or sedatives but promotes secretions, is right, we will say that if four physicians of good standing in this city will send us a Diabetic between fifty and seventy years of age, strong enough to call at our office, showing high specific gravity (thirst and a large quantity of sugar, we will with this mild infusion to help the liver oxidize the sugars and starches, attempt to return him in sixty days with half of the sugar eliminated, with thirst and symptoms largely reduced and on the road to recovery. If we fail we will publish the fact; if we succeed the physicians to acknowledge it. We want a patient whom we can both trust. This offer is not in the nature of a contest, but to demonstrate that life can be prolonged or recovered had in many cases of Diabetes now dying under codein."

If you have Diabetes and are of middle age or over you owe it to yourself and family to try Fulton's Diabetic Compound before giving up. It can be had at F. D. Hall, druggist. Ask for pamphlet or write to John F. Fulton Company, San Francisco.

Getting Gray! Just Apply A Little Sage Tea Tonight

Sage Mixed With Sulphur Restores Natural Color and Lustre to Hair.

Why suffer the handicap of looking old. Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance.

Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use; but listen, avoid preparations put up by druggists as they usually use too much sulphur, which makes the hair sticky. Get "Wyeth's," which can always be depended upon to darken beautifully and is the best thing known to remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

By using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair. It does it so naturally and evenly—you moisten a sponge or soft brush, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time, which requires but a few moments. Do this at night and by morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored and it becomes glossy and lustrous and you appear years younger. Hall's Drug Store, 16 No. Side Square, agent.

For dandruff, use ED. PINAUD'S HAIR TONIC

(Eau de Quinine)
Baldness often begins when dandruff appears—your hair falls out, gets thin and bleeds. Use this fragrant French preparation and watch your hair improve. It quickly beautifies and is invaluable as a daily dressing. 50 cents and $1.00. Ask your dealer for ED. PINAUD'S.

Tell him, Pawline, grandma sed to ma at supper last nite, and ma sed to pop, Willyum, are you hungry. Hungry isent the werd, sed pop, im starved, ravenous, give me sum moar peez, pleasee.

Now Willyum, you mussent eet meany peez tonite, sed ma.

No, Willyum, you bettir not eet eny moar peez, sed gramma.

Wy not, for the lover, Mike, sed pop, dont you no peez are my favrit fruit, neekt to esters.

Yes, but suchthir has a old fashioned toodelyudum, pudding for dezzert, sed ma, and if you eet to mutch this stuff you wont to abil to appriehate it enuff.

Yes Willyum, sed gramma, I maid up my mind id make at leest wun reel old fashioned toodelyudum pudding for you befor I went hoam.

Well, if I can stand the naim I gees I can stand the puddng, sed pop, let me have anuthir puttaytz, pleasee, I luv hole boiled puttaytz.

Now Willyum, sed ma, you had wun big wun, how do you think yure going to enjoy yure toodelyudum puddng if you stuff yureself full of puttaytz.

Pawline is rite, Willyum, sed gramma.

O, have it yure own way, sed pop, but I spossue you wont grudge me anuthir chop, will you.

Its not that I grudge it to you, Willyum, you know that sed ma, but if you eet eny moar you simply wont have eny room left for mothir's roodelyudum puddng.

This is a heck of a way to treat a famished man, sed pop, but awl rite, being-awn yure Chinese dish and lets have a skwint at it.

Its not a Chinese dish, sed gramma its the best puddng you evvir ate, that wat it is.

But I havent eet in yet, sed pop, and meenwhile there is a loud and insatint deemand for sustinents rite in the middel of my interior ekonomy, grate guns, peepil, I assure you by the feal of it that a few moar heeping platefulls of peez and puttaytz wont fill it awl up.

Its not to be thawt of Willyum, sed ma, Ill get the toodelyudum puddng rite away. And she got up and went ovir to the side bord and got a grate big bowl of sumthing, beeing brown awn top and looking awl rite, and she put a hole lot of it out awn a plate and gave it to pop, beeing yello inside and looking like soredust and things awl mixed up, and pop took a big spoonfull of it awn a spoon and sed, Hum, hum, and put the spoon back in the puddng, saying, Toodelyudum, toodelyudum.

Good grayshiss, Willyum, sed ma, dont say you dont like it.

Ill jest say wun thing, sed pop, soredust is soredust and peez and puttaytz are peez and puttaytz, im throo. And he got up and left it awl awn his plate, wich wen I tried to eet mine I didnt blame him.

WEST VIRGINIANS CELEBRATE SECESSION FROM SECESSION.

West Virginia will celebrate its fiftieth birthday today. It was just half a century ago, on June 20, 1863, that the "secession from secession" of the people of the western part of the Old Dominion culminated in the inauguration of a new state government at Wheeling, and the addition of a new star to the flag of the Union.

Wheeling, the first capital, will be the scene of the birthday celebration today. The "stogie city" will be the host to many distinguished men, and oratory and grape juice will flow freely at the great state banquet, while the populace will be entertained by parades, pageants and concerts.

The "secession from secession" movement, the alliance of the West Virginia mountaineers with the Union cause, and the admission of West Virginia to statehood, had a profound effect on the fortunes of the confederacy, preventing the success of the plan for a northward invasion to Lake Erie, thus dismembering the North by separating the East from the West.

Eastern and Western Virginia were at war with each other, in spirit, long before the outbreak of the civil strife between North and South. Eastern Virginia was settled largely by Englishmen of the higher class, conservatives in politics, and adherents of the Church of England. Western Virginia attracted sturdy pioneers of many nationalities, democratic and radical in political tendencies, and non-conformist in religion. The civil war only served to bring these differences to a crisis.

Fifty-two years ago today a provisional State government was formed in West Virginia, and application was made her admission to the Union. Exactly two years later the new State government went into power at Wheeling. It was a day of great jubilation in the little city on the Ohio. Flags flaunted everywhere, and vast crowds gathered to cheer the outgoing provisional governor, Pierpont, and the new governor, Arthur I. Boreman, a Scotch-Irishman, who was formally inaugurated. Thus was the Mountain State launched on its career as the thirty-fifth in the Union, with the motto, "Montani Semper Liberi."

"Mountains are always free."

Fifty years after that auspicious event, civil war still smolders in parts of West Virginia. Paint Creek, Heaver Creek, New River—these names are associated with recent battles almost as sanguinary as some of the conflicts of fifty years ago. For several years, with only an occasional truce, capital and labor have been at war in the Kanawha county coal fields. Martial law, the "bull-pen," dynamite and dum-dum bullets, armored trains, military courts, the suppression of newspapers, the spectacle of civilians being driven through muddy streets of dingy towns by khaki-clad soldiers, gatling guns frowning from extemporized forts, churches transformed into prisons, armed miners lurking in ambush to "pot" a "scab," armed guards attacking the defenceless women and children subsisting on the crusts of poverty—these are features of a problem that West Virginia will seek to forget today.

AMBITION PILLS

For Nervous People.

Everyone can be helped with the famous WENDELL'S AMBITION PILLS, the great nerve tonic that will put vigor, vim and vitality into nervous, tired out, all in, despondent people in a few days.

Anyone can buy a box for only 50 cents and Evans' Drug Store is authorized by the maker to refund the purchase price if anyone is dissatisfied.

Thousands praise them for general debility, nervous prostration, mental depression and unstrung nerves caused by over-indulgence in alcohol, tobacco or excesses of any kind.

A brain food or any affliction of the nervous system, WENDELL'S AMBITION PILLS are unsurpassed, while for hysteria, trembling and neuralgia they are simply splendid.

BROWNSVILLE.

Miss Margaret Cooperrider had the misfortune one day last week to fall down the stairs and receive a painful injury to her back, from which she is unable to be up.

A. E. McMaster returned to his home in Columbus Saturday, after a two weeks visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McMaster.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Myres of Zanesville spent Thursday and Friday of last week with the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wiley.

Mr. V. W. Nicholson made a business trip to Barnesville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McMaster and family, Edgar, Paul and Eulalia, of Columbus, spent Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. Susan McMaster and other relatives.

Mr. U. B. Hupp has returned to West Virginia after a week's visit at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Powers entertained a few friends on last Thursday evening. The evening was spent with music and conversation. A most elaborate and delightful lunch was served by the hostess. Those entertained were: Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Drumm, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McMaster, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Bert R. Orr, Misses Nella, Ada and Vera Orr, Hazel Brown, Mabelle McMaster, Mrs. Mercer, Dr. W. E. Holmes, A. E. McMaster and Homer Orr.

Dr. Iden, wife and children of Somerset spent Sunday with Mrs. Iden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Holmes.

The funeral service of Mrs. Sarah Davy of Kirkersville was conducted here Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Davy was a highly respected and esteemed resident of our town. Mrs. Davy and her husband, William Davy were all those years the proprietors of the Hotel Davy. Mrs. Davy who nearly eighty-three years was the mother of eleven children, nine of whom are yet living to mourn the loss of a good mother. They are: George, John and Harry of Kirkersville, Frank of Zanesville, Robert of Brownsville, Mrs. Julia Helpfrey of Utica, Mrs. Nellie Zikler of Columbus and Miss Clemmie of the home; also twenty-three grand children and five great-grandchildren.

One should make a close inspection of all drains about the farm at this particular season.

The woman of to-morrow must have plenty of good, pure, red blood today. The foundation of good or bad health is laid during her girlhood days. No girl should allow herself to become pale, bloodless and weak and thus lay the foundation for a lifetime of ill health and misery. Let every girl ask herself today if her blood is as pure and rich as it should be. Pale cheeks, lips and gums, shortness of breath on going up stairs or on slight exertion, palpitation of the heart, sleeplessness, lack of appetite and ambition and an all-tired-out feeling are some of the signs of bad blood. The more of them you have the more advanced is the bloodlessness and the greater the need of building up your blood.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People do not simply provide the elements that the blood lacks; their good influence is more far reaching. The new blood goes everywhere just the same as the watery, impure blood did, but unlike it, carries health, nourishment and strength to every part of the body. As the blood improves the general health improves. The good results are soon felt throughout the body.

Every bloodless girl or woman should send for the free booklets "Plain Talks to Women" and "Building Up the Blood."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists at 50 cents per box or six boxes for $2.50 or will be sent, postpaid, upon receipt of price by the

FRECKLES

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Unlucky Spots.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as the prescription ointment—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of ointment—double strength—from your druggist and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength ointment as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

Pres. Wilson Insists On a Currency Bill

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, June 20.—[Special.]—There is no denying the fact that most of the Democrats have been thrown into consternation over President Wilson's insistence that there shall be currency legislation at the present special session of congress. The president sees no reason why an intelligent, effective and permanent currency law should not be enacted.

Just as he could see no reason why protection should be accorded wool and sugar (and forced his views) so he is going ahead with the currency. To a man like the president currency which is the medium of exchange, which is now controlled wholly by the government, should not be such a complex and difficult proposition, necessitating postponement until members of congress can become informed as to what should be done.

And so the president is going forward with a currency program. It will disarrange summer and fall vacations of congressmen, but the people will not grieve when they realize that the pay of the congressmen goes along whether they are in session or not. Nor does it cost any more to have congress in session.

Diverse Views on Money.

President Wilson has not been impressed with the oft repeated assertion that currency legislation is well nigh impossible because the Democrats hold such diverse views on the subject. He knew there was diverse views on the tariff, but a tariff bill was possible. He also sees no reason why there should be diverse views on this subject, as it is one in which every legislator should be anxious to do the very best thing for the people and the country. Consequently he wants to find out whether the "diverse views" cannot be reconciled.

Lobby Discussion Imminent.

There is sure to be a lobby discussion before the tariff is taken up in the senate unless all signs fail. The senators who have been called before the committee of investigation have said enough to warrant the belief that they will have a lot more to say when the report is made to the senate. The intimations that senators have been influenced by lobbyists in Washington, by the printed advertisements and by the literature circulated have been enough to stir up many of them, and they want to say something about it. A debate on the lobby will be more interesting than on the tariff schedules.

More Sailors Wanted.

Although we have a fleet of fourteen battleships on the Atlantic coast and squadrons on the Pacific coast, at Hawaii and in the Philippines, it appears that the navy is about 4,000 men short, and so far the recruiting officers have not been able to get men. Secretary Daniels hopes to make life for the enlisted men more pleasant and thus encourage enlistments in the service. He has projected a number of suggestions looking to that end.

Nelson an Investigator.

There are investigating committees occasionally of which Senator Nelson of Minnesota is not a member. But as a usual thing, more particularly if it involves the personal integrity of men, the famous old Norseman is usually appointed a member of the inquiring committee. It is not because he is a sleuth, but rather that men in the senate have confidence in his integrity, his fairness and the fact that he is sure to go to the bottom of everything presented.

"Getting It Off His Chest."

Congressman Mondell asked the house for an hour's conversation the other day, which was granted. Then he had an extension of time for half an hour and in addition printed additions to his speech. He talked to a dozen members about the forestry system, conservation, etc. He simply had to "get it off his chest." In all probability we will see a lot of men "coming back" at him, for this conservation movement is one which has many sides and ready talkers among its supporters.

The Senate Indignant.

There was a great deal of amusement manifested one day when the senate solemnly and seriously criticized the house for enacting general legislation on appropriation bills. This was all the more amusing because there was not a senator in the body who does not always try to get all possible legislation fastened to appropriation bills when the house does so. And, what is more, some of the most important legislation in recent years has been passed by having the senate attach it to appropriation bills. But while the criticisms of the house were going on no one "batted an eye" or so much as smiled.

Senate Cuts Deeper.

And now the surprise comes when the senate cuts deeper than the house. The senate has extended the free list, cut the Underwood rates until a new bill almost has been prepared. As it stands now the Underwood bill might be called the Simpson bill, the Stone bill, the Gore bill, the Williams bill or the Smith bill or the joint bill of all those eminent senators who, with carefully sharpened knives, have sliced off protection on the house bill as they went along with the consideration of the bill in the finance committee.

And what makes it quite interesting is that Underwood will have a hard time restoring his rates. He could have fought against increases, but it will be difficult to insist upon the restoration of higher rates.

That Prestige Problem.

The most Democratic among the Democratic senators are those making the row about the prestige of the senate and the manner in which dignity has been affronted by reason of giving the members of the cabinet precedence at a White House function. It is one of those perennial rows over "rank and precedence" borrowed from monarchies, but which are growing year by year in Washington.

Of course the foreigners insist rigidly upon "precedence," and members of the diplomatic corps who are not placed in a reception line or at a dinner table according to their rank would immediately withdraw. Our ruffled senators are talking of doing the same thing if they are not again accorded the rank which they claim.

The Impetuous Martine.

Those who know Senator Martine of New Jersey are not surprised when they read about the manner in which he breaks out during the investigation of the coal strike in West Virginia. Martine is an impetuous man, impatient of wrongdoing or oppression, and never fails to voice his sentiments in vigorous words. He has become a habit in the senate on occasions when he is moved by some occurrence which appeals to his sentiment. If there is any way of doing so Martine will report in favor of the "under dog" in the present investigation.

His First Summer.

President Wilson has evidently determined that he can spend at least one summer in Washington if it is necessary to pass the bills he thinks should be enacted. His family will go to New England, but he will stay on the job and also run the job. Of course he will find diversions. The Mayflower can slip out into the Atlantic ocean in a night, carrying the president to cool sea breezes. Then he belongs to all the country clubs hereabouts and can get into the country and enjoyable surroundings in a few minutes. Altogether he will not find it difficult to spend his first summer here.

COON ADOPTS GUINEAS.

Hatched in Kitchen Stove and Kept Warm by Pet.

Monessen, Pa.—Smoke, a pet coon belonging to Franklin Sauter, has adopted a brood of young guinea hens that were hatched in the oven of Mrs. Sauter's stove a few days ago. Local naturalists and woodsmen assert that this is the only instance on record where a coon is known to have overcome his natural instincts to kill all feathered creatures.

Several months ago Sauter captured a young coon that had been pulled down and injured by the dogs. It soon became domesticated and became a great pet around the house.

Sauter is also a breeder of guinea fowls, which are prone to leave their nests and sit in the fields and woodlands. Missing one several weeks ago, Sauter traced her to the fields and secured ten of her eggs, which were within a day's time of incubation.

Not having an incubator, Sauter put the eggs in the oven of his stove, and when they hatched he placed the chicks in a box behind the stove. He was greatly surprised in the morning to find the coon in the box "mothering" them.

NO WAGES FOR PORTERS.

"Red Tops" on Pennsylvania Must Rely on Tips.

Philadelphia.—Some porters in Pennsylvania railroad stations do not get even $1 a month in wages, as Lotterbury Boyd testified that he did when pleading guilty in Pittsburgh of stealing $5 from a woman passenger.

The porters in the Pennsylvania railroad stations, or "red tops," as they are called, are taken from the cleaning gangs. The men in the cleaning gangs get $40 to $45 a month. When more "red tops" are needed the station master goes to the cleaning gangs and says that he needs so many men, and the vacancies are filled by volunteers.

At first the "red tops" receive no wage at all. They must live solely on tips. But after they have been in the service for some time they get $20 to $30 monthly. The purpose of the small wage is "to make them hustle," it is said.

The job of the "red top" is looked upon by the other cleaners as a "gentleman's job," and there is usually rivalry for the places. Any time a "red top" is dissatisfied with his post he can go back to the cleaning gangs.

FINDS WATCH LOST

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS

Timepiece Again Running After Having Been Buried.

Menomonie, Wis.—Thirty-five years ago this spring Register of Deeds Alfred Halverson of St. Croix county, then a young man, became the possessor of his first watch, an open faced silver watch, with a heavy case. Young Halverson valued his new possession so highly that he carried it with him at all times, even when he was plowing on his uncle's farm.

He was heartbroken after plowing a few furrows one morning to find that the watch had slipped from his pocket and had been plowed under. With his cousin, Edward Halverson, he back plowed the furrows, cross plowed them and then combed the earth for hours in search of the precious timepiece, but in vain.

Recently while plowing on the Star Prairie farm, Edward Halverson saw the plow turn something metallic out of the ground. He stopped and picked it up and found it was a silver watch. He at once thought of the one his cousin had lost thirty-five years ago, and although the fields had been changed, he discovered this was where he had helped look for the watch years ago.

The thick crystal was broken, and the hinges were rusted, but he returned the old timepiece to its owner, and a jeweler to whom it was taken for repairs discovered that the works were free from dirt and rust and the adjustment still perfect.

A little oil, a new pair of hinges, a new crystal, and the watch when wound started to run as though it had merely run down the night before.

TRIES TO KISS THE JUDGE.

Mexican Woman Seeks to Embrace California Magistrate.

Los Angeles.—When Mrs. Ricardo Rivera, a Mexican woman, offered to kiss Superior Judge Monroe in gratitude for a gift of $2, which brought her and her husband together again, the magistrate blushed and directed an official to lead her from the courtroom.

The husband was up on a charge of failure to provide. He promised to be good, and the court discharged him. Rivera informed the magistrate that he did not have sufficient funds to take his wife with him back to his job at Ontario, whereupon Judge Monroe handed him $2.

Nine-year-old Hen Earned $56.70.

Republic, Ark.—Mrs. B. M. Lervold of Republic has lost a remarkable nine-year-old hen which was hard to beat as an egg producer. During its lifetime the Biddy laid ninety dozen eggs, which, at 15 cents a dozen, means $13.50; each year raised 210 chicks, which at an average of 20 cents each, increased her earnings $42.00, or a total of $55.70.

In their frantic efforts to save time some people waste a lot of it.

Matinee Club Pleases Large Crowd in First Day's Races

The first matinee for the season 1913 of the Newark Driving club pleased a large crowd and developed some closely contested races between the matinee horses. Warrington's Murry Clay paced a half mile in 107 flat in the second heat and proved to be a steady animal. The Class B Pace furnished another interesting exhibition, Patsy B and Steel Spur coming in under the wire so close together that no winner could be picked. It was necessary to run a fourth heat to pick the winner. This was Steel Spur, the last half mile being run in 13 1-4. The best time in this event was 10 1-4 for the half mile.

The club management was well pleased with the interest taken in the races. The crowd was larger than was expected on the opening day. There is no admission fee charged at these matinee events, there is a keen rivalry between the horse owners and there is plenty of excitement all afternoon. Thursday's summaries:

The Human Procession

Mrs. Finley J. Shepard, the former Helen Miller Gould, will celebrate her forty-fifth birthday today. In divulging this information no confidence is violated, for the famous philanthropist has never sought to keep her age a secret "shrouded in mystery." A year ago Miss Gould was described as "the world's wealthiest spinster," and is probable that no thought of marriage had entered her head. The watchful Cupid, who is as democratic as death in the distribution of his darts, at last found his opportunity—found it in the midst of wreck and darkness and disaster. Finley J. Shepard, a comparatively poor railroad man, and Miss Gould were passengers on a West Shore train last October. A warm friendship existed between the pair, but that was all. The train was wrecked, and Mr. Shepard's first thought was for Miss Gould. Assured of her safety, he bent his energies toward saving other passengers whose lives were endangered. The coolness and bravery of the railroad man aroused Miss Gould's admiration, and Cupid, alert to opportunity, let fly two arrows that pierced two hearts, chuckled "At last," fluttered his wings joyously and soared away—perhaps to attend to the budding romance of some Patrick, policeman, and Horah, cook.

Hubert William Culling Carr-Gomm, who for seven years has been a Liberal member of the British Parliament, was born at Octacumund, South India, thirty-six years ago today. He recently brought suit for a divorce from his wife, naming as co-respondent another prominent Liberal member of Parliament, Elliot Crawshaw Williams, parliamentary private secretary to Chancellor Lloyd-George. Despite his youth, Mr. Carr-Gomm is a leader in the councils of Liberalism.

He sits for the Rotherhithe division of Southwark, and was formerly assistant private secretary to Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman. He is a graduate of Eton and Oxford and prominent in several leading clubs of London. It has been alleged by some of the London papers that he was offered a baronetcy to withdraw his suit. He married Kathleen, daughter of the late William Rome, a wealthy Liverpool man, in 1906, the same year he entered Parliament.

Francis Emory Warren of Wyoming, one of the wealthiest members of the United States Senate, was born at Hinsdale, Mass., sixty-nine years ago today. During the civil war he was a private and later an officer in the Forty-ninth Massachusetts Volunteers and received a Congressional medal of honor for gallantry on battlefield at the siege of Port Hudson. Although the owner of millions, Senator Warren recently applied for a $16 a month pension, explaining that he did so in order to officially establish his army record. He went to Wyoming in 1868, and soon became prominent in Republican politics as mayor of Cheyenne, territorial governor, first governor of the state, and United States senator. Sheep were the source of his fortune, and he became one of the largest wool producers in the world. He has been subjected to many bitter attacks in the press, but he has been Wyoming's choice for senator since 1890. As a young man in Wyoming he was prominent in the campaign that resulted in the granting of suffrage to the ladies. That was in 1869, when Wyoming was a territory. Throughout his subsequent career "The Shepherd King of America" has been a champion of the suffrage cause.

TODAY'S RECORD OF THE PUGILISTS

1876—Johnny Thompson, "the Sycamore Cyclone," was born on this date in Ogle county, Illinois. He began his professional boxing career in 1902, going through the light, welter and middleweight classes to the commissionweight division. He was at his best as a lightweight, defeating a number of good men. Defeated in the last year he has been defeated by Jack Lester in Sydney, by George Knockout Brown in Peoria and by Bob Moha in Milwaukee, and fought a draw with Frank Mantell in Sacramento. His last important victory was over Billy Papke in Australia in 1911.

1904—Stanley Ketchel knocked out Jim King in the third round at Butte.

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY

Your pathway will be crossed by light and shade, and though you will meet good fortune your health will suffer unless you are wisely careful. Curb new friendships, not allowing them to grow too quickly. Those born today will be restless and careless and will have to be taught the advantages of truth and consideration for others, in retaining their hold on the valuable friends whom their pleasing appearance will attract.

More Surprises are Expected of Harry Hebner

Harry Hebner of the Illinois Athletic club, world's champion back stroke swimmer, will be a contestant at the international water carnival to be held in Chicago, and the aquatic fraternity is wondering what new surprises he has up his sleeve, ready to spring, for Harry, be it known, is the champion "surpriser" of the nation.

Last fall he declared he would specialize at the back stroke, and nonchalantly shattered a few world's standards. Then, changing his mind, he unexpectedly entered the free style championships, scored brilliantly in the 220 and 500 yard national events, and ended by furnishing the sensation of the year in the 100-yard titular race, when, ten to one shot, he romped away from McGillivray and Raithel, the hot favorites, and captured first. Now every one is asking: "What next?"

is the means to your end. Back it by ambition for home beauty and all things will be added unto you.

Scuffs and scars of floors, woodwork and furniture will disappear. The beauty of the wood will stand out, emphasized by the rich, deep, enduring tone imparted by the stain. The shade will be as you choose it, to match the environment or conform to any scheme of interior decoration.

The directions are simplicity itself:

Have surface clean and dry. If dark spots show, sandpaper them off. Apply stain with soft, flat brush, in direction of grain.

If desired to use a light finish on dark floors, a ground coat must first be applied.

Natural grain of wood can be reproduced with one of our graining outfits

In Society

Rev. Lester L. Cooperider of Glenford, graduated last week from Capital University, Columbus, and was one of the bridegrooms in a triple wedding at Columbus Thursday which united the lives of three couples who have been friends and schoolmates since childhood.

The triple ceremony was simple but very impressive. It was performed by Rev. C. W. Bachman of the Emmanuel church, assisted by Rev. Fred Schub of Capital University. The wedding marked the culmination of many years of friendship, during which the brides and bridegrooms formed a happy group together.

Of the brides, two are sisters, Clara and Emma Kochenderfer, the third bride being Miss Estelle Scholl. The latter, Thursday, was married to Rev. Lester L. Cooperider of Glenford, O., who has just graduated from the seminary at Capital University, and who within a few weeks, will become the pastor of the St. John's Lutheran church at Philo, O. Miss Emma Kochenderfer was married to Carl Hausch and Miss Clara Kochenderfer to Stanton Bachman of Canal Winchester. Mr. Bachman is a nephew of Rev. Mr. Bachman, who performed the triple ceremony. He also was just graduated from Capital University, but from the collegiate department proper. Rev. Mr. Cooperider is a graduate both from the college and the seminary.

The three couples went to the church in the same automobile, where a gathering of friends and relatives awaited them. Each pair plans a short wedding trip of their own.

MOORE-ROBY.

Miss Grace Moore and Mr. Clarence Roby, both popular young people of this city, were quietly married at the parsonage of the Rev. Mr. Sparks at high noon Thursday, the only attendants being Miss Blanche Miller of Columbus and Mr. H. Baker of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Roby left immediately after the ceremony for a trip on the Great Lakes. After August first they will be at home to their many friends on Oak street.

Exceptionally pretty were the arrangements when a Japanese tea was given at the Second Presbyterian church manse on Wednesday afternoon and evening. The manse was handsomely decorated with cherry blossoms and the yard was made picturesque by the use of Japanese lanterns. The tea table was placed under a large Japanese umbrella which was decorated with Japanese lanterns.

Mrs. W. W. Gard and Mrs. Channing Tucker gave a delightful musicale and Mrs. Don Tullis and Mrs. J. R. Fitzgibbon poured tea. The tea was served by Misses Martha Grace, and Virginia Miller and Thelma Mazy.

Miss White, a guest of Mrs. Tullis, assisted in the rendition of the musical program.

The Art Embroidery club met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wm. Dover at her home in Kibler avenue. Mrs. Harry Rexrothe was guest of the club. On July 2, Mrs. George Rigley of Dewey avenue will entertain the club.

The Saturday Evening Sewing club met at the home of Miss Dot Woodward in Church street on Thursday afternoon. Misses McMillen, Dehaden and Miss Yost of Camden were guests of the club.

Miss Louise Norpell entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Sewing club at her home in Granville street Thursday afternoon. The main feature of the afternoon was a shower in honor of Miss Mary Nichols, who is soon to be the bride of Walter Ferguson.

All girls under sixteen are invited to the Y. W. C. A. at 2 o'clock in the afternoon Saturday to an informal party. Games will be played and refreshments will be served.

Misses Gladys Ayers, Kitty Bates, Elizabeth Shick, Helen Kuhn, Alice Yates, Jennie James, Carrie Copeland and Mrs. Virtue plucked at Horner's farm north of the city Thursday afternoon and took a hay wagon ride home in the evening.

The T. M. P. club met at the home of Miss Arletta Kline on Maple avenue yesterday evening. The evening was spent in music and conviviality, after which refreshments were served. Miss Grace Booker was a guest of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Miller of Hudson avenue, expect to leave soon for Evanston, Ill., where they will attend the wedding of their son, Ralph B. Miller and Miss Emma L. Parks, next Wednesday. Miss Parks was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Miller last summer. Mr. Miller, now a teacher in St. Louis, met Miss Parks at Harvy, Ill., where both were teaching in the same school.

WOMEN'S REST ROOM IN THE COURT HOUSE

Many of the citizens of Newark and also many visitors and people with business in the city are not cognizant of the fact that there is a women's rest room in the northeast basement of the court house.

This rest room is fully equipped and amply provided with all comforts for those of the feminine sex wishing to rest while in the neighborhood of the court house. It is very often commented by the court house officials and the matron of the rest room that there is seldom any demand of any nature upon this exigency which is provided by the county. That it is almost never used is probably due to the fact that its existence has not been generally advertised.

MANY CATTLE KILLED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Youngstown, O., June 20.—Fifty cattle and five horses were killed when lightning struck Fred Seafert's dairy barn last night. At Dorset three houses, struck by lightning, burned. Fire at Sheet's lumber yard here caused a loss of $40,000.

BOYS WERE LUCKY.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Fremont, O., June 20.—Not realizing their danger, Roger French and Horace T. Schump, boys of this city, yesterday captured a live copperhead snake four feet long on the bank of the river and brought it home with them wrapped up in a coat.

All men may have equal rights but lots of them are left.

The Vacation of Violence

ASKED my sister the other day why she took her vacation so violently," laughed the clubwoman, as she and her friend sat chatting on the porch.

"What was her excuse?" queried the friend. "She was quite indignant. She said she didn't understand what I meant, that she and John always took the most sensible vacations."

"Every one thinks, each year, he is taking just the right vacation," observed the friend. "That is, until it is over. Then he may have misgivings."

"Yes, my sister said she is taking a sane, and sensible vacation. Yet there she sits, these hot days, sewing like mad to get ready. From the start to the finish, here is what I call a violent vacation. She is in a state of violent eruption, so to speak, getting ready, and she passes her vacation violently spending money and violently enjoying herself. She doesn't calms down until she gets back home and rests up."

"She is not the only one who takes her vacation violently," reflected the friend. "I guess most of us do. Did you ever know anyone to go on a vacation with just the clothes she had? If we get nothing else, we get handkerchiefs and gloves; but the probability is we replenish our whole wardrobe from shoes and hosiery to dresses and hats. And for two weeks outing. Whereas, if we stayed at home, we wouldn't buy a new thing in the verucular of the street, what sort of bug gets us?"

"Since you have descended to slang," laughed the clubwoman, "my reply is, 'Search me.'"

"And, as you say," went on the friend, "we jump in and spend money as if we were millionaires. We hand out our good dollars for amusement—that at other times we would scorn to waste time no, let alone money."

The clubwoman agreed. "And the way we chase around doing stunt is appalling. Nice, amiable, stout ladies, who don't walk a mile in a month, suddenly develop a mania for climbing mountains, or trying to qualify for a golf tournament. I have seen them feebly limping back to the hotel after some stunt of this sort, positively purple in the face, and their legs as stiff as those of a chair, yet stoutly averring, they have had a lovely time."

"I've done it myself," admitted the friend, "just why I fall a victim to this midsummer madness I do not know. I live a placid life at other times and seasons. But when the temperature begins to mount, sooner or later I dash forth from my peaceful home and career wildly through art galleries or else frantically swim or walk or row or climb; to return, when the frenzy has left me or my pocketbook is empty, to coddle aching muscles and blistered feet, and a sunburned nose, and to think how comfortable my own bed is, and how good my own food is, and to admit, somewhat sneakingly to myself, I have been a fool."

"But we don't need to take these violent vacations," said the club woman. "I've been telling my sister this and trying to induce her to relax the tension a bit,—to take fewer clothes, to spend less money, and not to be on the go all the time. But she won't listen to me."

"Everybody's doing it," replied the friend. "And nobody wants to ag behind the procession."

New Paris Fashion is Interesting to Society

The newest Paris fashion that has come to the centres of society in the United States of every city which boasts a "Four Hundred" is the ornamentation of the hair with a pearl band. Society women in some of the watering places along the Atlantic coast have been seen wearing similar ornaments.

The band is filled with pearls or similar ornaments and bound tightly about the hair, in some cases giving an effect like a Grecian.

COURT NEWS

Common Pleas Court.
In the common pleas court on Friday the court and jury were engaged in the trial of the case of Clarence E. Stricklin vs Holophone Glass company. The plaintiff asks to recover damages in the sum of $2,000. He says that while working on a stamping machine at the factory, he lost a portion of one of his thumbs. He claims that the machinery was defective. The defendant denies the claim of the plaintiff and says that Stricklin is guilty of negligence.

In common pleas court tomorrow, Saturday morning, Judge Fulton will call up all motions for new trials which have been filed during this term.

Case Settled.
The case of Sarah J. Brown vs City of Newark was settled in common pleas court on Thursday. Plaintiff sued to recover damages for personal injuries sustained by stepping in a hole at the crossing of Tuscarawas street and Dewey avenue some months since, resulting in seriously injuring her.

A judgment for plaintiff was entered for $276.00.

HAWTHORNE AIDS FELLOW CONVICTS

Son of Famous Novelist a Cheerful Prisoner.

LIKENS MEN TO GREAT BOOKS

New Humanity Urged by "Register 4435" in the Atlanta Federal Prison. Calls Fellow Criminals "Brothers" in His Latest Editorial—Refuses to See Cellars at the Prison.

Atlanta, Ga.—A new philosophy, full of humanity and understanding, has been born to Julian Hawthorne, son of the great novelist, since he became "register 4435," an inmate of the federal penitentiary here.

The deepest human element appears in everything he has written for Good Words, the prison paper, and is creating for that journal a unique literary interest. The son of Nathaniel Hawthorne has turned "minister to the heart and conscience" of his fellow convicts.

More than in anything else is this new found sentiment set forth in his prison poem, "Fool False," written to the men who night after night tramp ceaselessly back and forth in their eight foot cells. He has come to understand the power that drives them.

"Brother, I know," is the refrain of the poem.

A recent issue of the paper contains the beginning of a new department of which he will be conductor. He writes of books, prescribing a model course of reading made up of the choicest literature of all countries and of all time. Reverence for his father is implied in his selection of two books of Nathaniel Hawthorne's, "The Scarlet Letter" and "Our Old Home."

But along with his essay on literature he wrote of another subject which has become more interesting to him, he says, since he became an inmate of the prison.

"There is another and a greater library," he said in his column. "It is distributed among the ranks in pairs, with a shelf to each volume. Their binding is homogeneous—stout blue cloth on ordinary occasions, which on Sundays and holidays changes to a woolen fabric of darker hue. They bear titles on the front and back.

"There is a sprinkling of the poetical element and a good deal of fiction, but each carries a historical and biographical index often illegible—stories of crime mingled with tragedies, or you find a farce or a comedy."

"Moreover, these volumes grow, decay and die; chapters are added from time to time, but the tale seldom ends happily. These are the books that God made—not always much to look at, but containing a great deal of human interest if you can get beneath the covers."

Hawthorne has shaken hands with "Dutchman, Dingo, Yankee, Greek," to use the words of his great prison poem, and he calls them brothers in everything he writes. With his fellow prisoners Hawthorne is all affability, but when visitors come he is ill and sees no one. His request made to Warden Meyer was that he be not known as Julian Hawthorne, the son of the great novelist and himself a prominent literary man, but merely as "register 4435."

A reporter, presenting in writing a request for an interview, received from Hawthorne the following answer. "I must ask you to excuse me. Here I am, as you know, not a name, but a number. If anything I have written for Good Words has done good or has caused interest I am glad, but have nothing to say about it."

The new Hawthorne who "knows," the minister to the conscience, is revealed in one paragraph which he wrote for Good Words.

"Instead of feeding upon angry and revengeful thoughts," he said, "which corrode the heart that generates them, use the occasion to extirpate sinister tendencies and to invite impulses of generosity and good will. Look upon your prison term as an opportunity to repent of the evil in you that men know not of."

In an editorial which he wrote for the paper is implied a justification of his own act which brought about his conviction.

A man has reason but a woman has reasons.

The "Movies"

A Newark man who hadn't visited a moving picture show for more than a year slipped into one of the local theaters this week and witnessed a popular production. He was amazed at the improvement not only in the character of the play, but in the mechanical effect. It was an enjoyable hour and it is safe to say it will not be another year before he goes again to the "movies."

When the moving pictures were first shown here the blood and thunder style prevailed, but nowadays the pictures are refined, educational and highly interesting. The Odysseys recently shown here was a wonder, and Pilgrim's Progress was beautiful. Next week we are to have another splendid thing in Helen Gardner as Cleopatra. The Helen Gardner pictures "Cleopatra" have attracted large audiences and favorable comment wherever they have been seen. The picture requires six reels, a run of two hours.

A big double bill is in line for the Auditorium tonight. "The Mystery of Pine Creek Camp," (three parts), with Gene Gauntier, "Self Accused," with King Baggot, "Pillar of Peril" and three more good pictures will be shown. The prices tonight will be 5c and 10c.

HELEN GARDNER.

Auditorium patrons are anxiously awaiting the appearance of Helen Gardner (former Vitaphone star) in her greatest success, "Cleopatra," next Monday and Tuesday. The picture is shown in six reels and is said to be a great triumph. The performances will commence at 1:30 and 3:30 and 5:30 and 8:30, requiring two hours to run through this wonderful picture. Gene Gauntier in "Mystery of Pine Creek Camp," (three parts); King Baggot in "Self Accused," "Pillar of Peril" and three more good pictures at the Auditorium tonight. 5c and 10c.

TAPE WORM VICTIM SPEAKS IN HORROR OF HUGE CREATURE

OHIO WOMAN RELATES TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE WITH MONSTROUS PARASITE.

The Tapeworm Removed by The United Doctors Was 40 Feet Long.

By far the most gruesome statement given out for publication at the United Doctors Institutes was made recently by a former tapeworm victim. This lady's name is withheld from publication, though with her consent her statement regarding her case is told in full.

"I suffered for years from what I thought was stomach trouble, rheumatism and kidney trouble. Doctors treated me for almost everything but gave me no relief for they didn't seem to know just what they were treating me for."

"I would bloat terribly, gas would form in my stomach and I would have a gnawing sensation, clutching or weakness at the stomach; at times an enormous appetite, at other times the thought of food would nauseate me. The burning in my stomach was terrible and the gripping pain in my bowels seemed unbearable. My heart would often palpitate and I would tremble all over with nervousness. My food would form a lump and give me a smothered feeling, dizzy and whirling spells would come over me. I would get tired and weak without cause. My food gave me but little strength and I lost ambition and worried over trifles until I could barely stand it. I had pains shooting over my body from shoulders to limbs until I was in despair. "Not long ago I decided to go to the United Doctors and commenced their treatment. They seemed to know just what ailed me. Soon after this I was greatly surprised when this horrid creature passed from my system, head and all. The tapeworm measured a fraction under 40 feet in length. For the first time in ten years I am now well and have no pains or troubles."

The above statement will no doubt be of interest to those who have suffered or are suffering from tapeworm.

The United Doctors treat among other diseases and ailments chronic and deep-seated diseases of the nerves, blood, liver, kidneys, bladder, skin, spine, brain, including paralysis, epilepsy, rheumatism, gall stones, goitre, ptosis, constipation, indigestion, asthma, deafness, catarrh, neuralgia, loss of nerve force, and diseases of women and diseases of men.
